

Freeborn Bank & Jacobson Building - Albert Lea, MN

This historic preservation project replaced and repaired broken and missing terra cotta tiles, tuck pointed and acid washed the exterior of the building, replaced all windows and doors, installed a new roof, added structural supports, installed patio doors and filled-in old coal storage caverns in the basement. A skylight was also installed over an upper level internal courtyard.

