

Globe University - Woodbury, MN

Globe University's Corporate Headquarters were moved to a new Business School Campus in Woodbury. The first phase of the campus is new 68,000 s.f. business school. Although the building appears to be a brick and limestone structure, it is actually constructed of Wells Concrete pre-cast wall panels with in-laid brick. This is the first building of what is planned to be a four building campus.

